Pomodone Srl: The Company Made in Italy with the soul lined in relaxation

We deal with the production of pouf and outdoor furniture for any structure that love transforming the emotions in unique and tangible sensations.

To make this possible, we need to create what we like to call the triangle of comfort or “Comfort Zone”, namely the intersection between these factors: relaxation, environment and fun.

Indoor or Outdoor, Summer and Winter, each product line guarantee adaptability for a comfortable relaxation at 360 °.

We decided to accompany you everywhere, beaches, hotels, spas, and to do it in any season.

Handcrafted and made with quality materials, our poufs are produced and guaranteed Made in Italy.

We are always close to our customers, especially in the post-sale phase.

The client needs to know that we're there with him and for him, ready to support him in case of need, guiding him towards the best solution and to rejoice with him in his achievements.

Design

Creating lines of products that can be adapted to any environment and any situation

Innovation

Developing our personal concept of design innovation through a revisiting of shapes, colors and materials

Tailor-made projects

Making tailor-made products to suit any customer request, in terms of size, colors and other needs

Health

Renovating the concept of relaxation and reworking it in all its forms

Quality, Passion, Guarantee

“Ideas come from needs and it is precisely the needs for comfort that move our soul.”

Production of poufs and complements with maximum comfort for improving the quality of rest. The reference point for all tourist and accommodation facilities that make relaxation and design their business card.

These are the feature with which we think, design and manufacture our products.

Our products features

Resistant to UV rays and available in different fabrics, our poufs are the expression of a relaxation beyond the boundaries of well-being. Colorful and made with non-toxic materials, they are the perfect complement for tourist accommodation. 100% waterproof, ergonomic, versatile and easily transportable thanks to their side handle. They can be stacked and stored in an orderly way and they can meet any space requirements.

The selected upholstery makes these complements comfortable seats.

Customized poufs, we leave our mark, everywhere.

Versatile in terms of use, comfortable in terms of relaxation, unique in terms of customization. We felt the need to ensure that every accommodation facility could have the opportunity to make its own complements unique by realizing prints that emphasized their uniqueness. Print the logo of your company on the Shell, insert an inscription on mattress, or embroider the name of your city on the beach towel, they are all ways to indelibly imprint the memory of your customers who will remember you as the structure with personalized comfort.
